

Carnival in Venice 2012

The official programme of the Carnevale di Venezia 2012 is: "LIVE IS A LIVING THEATRE". On Carnival Saturday 18th February for the top events of the carnival is in addition to art and culture and the early Spring in Venice to feel a little bit. "Serenissima", as the city is also called offers theater, music and world culture heritage. On the piazzas and on strolling in the lanes of Venice there are expensive masks to admire who move to "Rondo Veneziano. At 19:00 p.m. now as the first time this year after two decades when you can take part at "Gran Ballo di Carnevale" at St. Mark's Square as an open-air-Ball event for anybody again. In numerous famous museums which are organized in the "Civic Museum Fondazione Venezia" one finds major exhibitions currently such as: "The Dali Universe" - in Museum of Apollonia. Besides the Carnival see also the "Galleria dell'Accademia", the "Collezione Peggy Guggenheim" and the "Sala del Consiglio Maggiore". A glass of Italian Frascati Superiore and Fritelle, a torta di ricotta, which melts on the tongue, ... hmmm, music and song woven through the "Serenissima" until well into the evening.
